

MAYNOOTH THEOLOGY AND PHILOSOPHY SEMINAR
(September-December 2020)

Seminar held online on Microsoft Teams (SPCM:PG903 Research Seminar).

Wednesday 7 October

1.45-2.15pm: Jeremy Corley, “Exile & Sabbath: Scriptural Perspectives on the Pandemic”

2.15-2.45pm: Gaven Kerr, “What is the Soul?”

Wednesday 21 October

1.45-2.15pm: Andrew Meszaros, “Whose Flame and What Pain? Newman on Purgatory”

2.15-2.45pm: Neil Xavier O’Donoghue, “Sunday and COVID-19”

Wednesday 4 November

1.45-2.15pm: Sarah Boss,

“Does the Virgin Mary Offer Sacrifice on Calvary or at the Eucharist?”

2.15-2.45pm: Peter Jacob Shanet,

“The Ambiguity of the Logic of the Gift: Between Violence and Peacebuilding”

Wednesday 18 November

1.45-2.15pm: Philip Gonzales:

“Introducing the Horizon of Ferdinand Ulrich’s Thinking of Being-as-Gift”

2:15-2.45pm: Declan Marmion,

“Can we still learn from Karl Rahner?”

Wednesday 2 December, longer afternoon session 1.45-5.00pm:

1.45-2.15pm: Pádraig Corkery, “Religious Freedom: Contemporary Challenges & Opportunities”

2:15-2.45pm: Suzanne Mulligan, “Moral Aspects of Fratelli Tutti”

2.45-3.15pm: Peter Johnson, “The Concept of Structural Sin and the Magisterium”
[3.15-3.30pm: Tea break]

3.30-4.00pm: Gaven Kerr, “Immortality of the Soul”

4.00-4.30pm: Nicole O’Riordan, “A Carnavalesque Perspective on the Anointing of Saul”

4.30-5.00pm: Timothy Mejida, “Jesus’ Obedience in Gethsemane according to Matthew”