

St Patrick's College, Maynooth
RESEARCH SEMINAR February – May 2019

Wednesday 6th February, 1.45-3.00pm

1.45-2.10pm: Joseph Varghese: "Christianity and Hinduism in Inter-religious Dialogue"

2.10-3.00pm: Jeremy Corley: "Jewish Afterlife Hope Before the New Testament"

Tuesday 19th February, Faculty seminar, 4.15-5.45pm

Prof. Sandra Huebenthal, Passau: "'You cannot live with an experience that remains without a story' —How Mark's Gospel narrates experiences with Jesus (and what follows from that)"

Tuesday 19th February

Prof. John Milbank, ITQ lecture in conjunction with MU Philosophy Department, 7.30pm, Renehan Hall: "Religious Experience and the Question of Spirit"

Wednesday 20th February, 1.45-3.00pm

Prof. Sandra Huebenthal, Passau: "Social Memory and Scripture in the Gospel of John: How Social Memory Theory Changes Reading the NT"

Monday 4th March, 7.30pm, Renehan Hall, Devlin Lecture

Prof. David Hollenbach, Georgetown University, Washington DC

"Human Rights in Catholic Social Thought: A Living Tradition and Some Urgent Challenges Today"

Wednesday 13th March, 1.45-3.00pm

Dr Antonio Portalatin, Philosophisch-Theologische Hochschule Sankt Georgen, Frankfurt: "Old Parables, New Parables: From Jesus to Kafka, and Vice Versa"

Wednesday 27th March, 1.45-3.00pm

1.45-2.10pm: Paul Kangkai, PhD candidate, SPCM

"The Unicity and the Universality of Christ in the Context of Religious Pluralism: A Lubacian Hermeneutic."

2.10-3.00pm: Dr Miriam Moffitt, SPCM

"Deconstructing church history: the traditional templates revisited"

Wednesday 3rd April, 1.45-3.00pm

Dr Ralf Gührer, theologian, Augsburg:

"Kolumba - the genesis of a concept: An art museum as a theological laboratory"

Wednesday 24th April, 1.45-3.00pm

Three postgraduate papers (details TBC)

Wednesday 8th May, 2.30-5.20pm, Middle Loftus

2.30-3.30pm: Dr Todd Salzman, Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska

"Amoris Laetitia: Towards a Methodological Integration of Catholic Social and Sexual Ethics."

3.50-5.20pm: Four postgraduate papers (details TBC)

5.30pm: Evening Prayer, followed by postgraduate supper.